

Please do not implement Broadband Over Power Line (BPL). The additional RF pollution would further degrade the shortwave listeners ability to hear news and entertainment from around the world. In these trying times the chance to listen to news from other countries and their viewpoint of our American politics and culture is truly educational and enlightening. Other forms of bringing broadband internet access to rural areas already exists. Please reconsider, Thank You,

Tyrone Winn (Shortwave Listener AND rural area broadband internet subscriber)